

ICIS Newsletter June 2015

Dear colleagues

Please find herewith our June 2015 Newsletter:

5th ICIS Expert Meeting in Switzerland

We are looking very much forward to welcome all attendees in Flüeli-Ranft, Switzerland on the occasion of our 5th ICIS Expert Meeting. We still have a few vacancies! Please register as soon as possible! Registration deadline is extended to June 30, 2015. It applies “first-come first-served” rule. For further information and registration please refer to attached preliminary final program and our Homepage www.itpbasel.ch/Meetings-Agenda.

Paul Imbach received the Guido Fanconi Price

It is a pleasure to inform you that Paul Imbach received the Guido Fanconi Price at the Annual Meeting of the Swiss Society of Pediatrics in June 2015 for his achievements in pediatric hematology and oncology.

This Price is awarded for distinguished clinicians and scientists who have made a major contribution to our understanding of an area that relates to pediatrics. Paul Imbach was honored for the detection of the effects of intravenous immunoglobulins and for his long-lasting engagement in pediatric hematology and oncology.

PARC-ITP Registry updates

Please continue to register all your newly diagnosed patients regularly, either by direct internet access (www.parc-itp.net) or, if your system does not allow you to do so, by completing forms and sending them to our data manager Caroline Martin Asal (itpbasel@unibas.ch), and she is happy to register these data for you. The direct fax number is +41 61 903 02 88.

For entering follow up data please check your files every month to see if follow-up information is due and complete all the forms that are marked underlined in the form row on the starting page of your institution (after login with username and password on www.parc-itp.net you see listed all your registered cases).

Splenectomy
Registry updates

Please send the data of your patients who are planned for splenectomy or who are splenectomised to splenectomy@ukbb.ch, thank you. The fax number is +41 61 704 12 41.

Please check your files regularly to see if follow-up information is due.

Thank you

Thank you so much for your support and collaboration with us and for sharing your data with us. Your effort is of high value in the field of research in ITP and we are happy to proceed with you.

Yours sincerely
